Italian Startup Ecosystem:

—“Who’s Who”

The Italian startup ecosystem is a vibrant and diverse landscape across the country. This map illustrates the distribution of startups, investors, and other key players across various regions. Each region is marked with distinct symbols representing the concentration of startups, investors, or other ecosystem players. The map also highlights the percentage of startups within each region, providing a clear visual representation of the geographic distribution of innovation in Italy.